

ADA Compliance Policy & Services

Healing Mountain Massage School's policy is to comply with the ADA — Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. Both our main Salt Lake City and our Cedar City branch campus are wheel-chair accessible (including restrooms) as well as have handicap parking near building doors or wheel-chair ramps.

Upon request, Healing Mountain will either provide access to auxiliary aids and services to students with hearing, speech, vision, or mobility impairments in accordance with 28 CFR 36.303, and/or otherwise make reasonable accommodations/modifications to its policies and practices in accordance with 28 CFR 36.302 to provide access to special needs individuals.

To request access to auxiliary aids and services and or modifications to policies and practices, please contact the school director at: randy@healingmountain.edu, or at the Salt Lake City main campus Title IX/ADA Coordinator at: blayne@healingmountain.edu, or at the Cedar City branch campus Title IX/ADA Coordinator at: jeremy@healingmountain.edu.
